WEST PENN COMPANY CUTS IN ON LOOP TODAY

The cut in on the new loop line of the West Penn Electric company is to be made sometime this afternoon according to word received at the local office. Several tests have been made of the line which was completed Wednesday but it has not been put into actual use as yet. By the installation of the line which completes the loop the service of the West Penn company will be greatly increased in efficiency, all customers having greater assurance than ever that power will be available at all times. Heretofore, when a break in the line occurred, all towns outside the break were without power until repairs were made. Under the arrangement now in effect, should a break occur at any point on the feeding lines, that portion will be cut out and the towns supplied from the opposite direction.

Thy system won makes a complete loop, beginning at the power house at New Haven. From there it goes to Uriontown, to Brownsville, to Charleroi, to Monongahela, to Versailles, to Greensburg, to Scottdale, and from there back to the power house at New Haven. Each end of this loop line is supplied from practically different power stations, the line leaving the building from opposite sides, by which means the current can be transmitted either way on the loop.

This loop line will do away with the shortage of power in the various towns on the circuit, which has formerly been caused by breaks in the line, and will be an assurance to all users of the fluid that service will be constant at all times. The electric company is already signing up new contracts for power on the strength of this guarantee of power at all times, Mr. Glass having arranged for about 1,000 additional horse power in the last few days.

The news of the completion of this line will be good news to our citizens assuring us as it does a better lighting service than ever before.

Ball Player Takes Bride.

Woody Thornton, a Monongahela valley boy, who for two years played shortstop for Eckle's Independent team here, and who has been playing middle field for Mobile in the Southern league, left that club yesterday to marry Miss Gertie Faubaches, a Mobile heiress. They will make their home in Pittsburg. Mr. Thornton's former home was in Brownsville, and he is very popular among his large number of acquaintances in this section.

Coal And Coke Shipments.

This is a decrease of about 50,000 tons, as compared with the previous week.

SKULL CRUSHED BY HORSE'S HOOF

Child Of Clarksville Suffers A Terrible Death.

THROWN FROM BUGGY

In the presence of her father who was unable to rescue her, Elizabeth, the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher C. Teagarden, was trampled to death by a horse at Clarksville, Greene county, last evening. The circumstances in connection with the death of the child were tragic in the extreme

Mr. and Mrs. Teagarden had attended the fair at Jefferson yesterday. They arrived home about 4 o'clock, little Elizabeth had remained home during the day with her grandmother, Mrs. James Greenlee. Of course the child was overjoyed to see her father and mother when they returned and ran shouting out to the road to meet them. The mother got out of the buggy and the child begging for a ride was taken into the rig by the father.

Mr. Teagarden drove at once to the residence of R. G. Murray, about a block away and stopped to water the horse. The father got out to unrein the animal, leaving the child in the buggy. The bridle caught on the pump and when the horse threw back its head he was frightened and started to run rapidly backward. Little Elizabeth was thrown from the buggy and as she atlighted on the ground the horse set one of its ponderous hind feet on the child's right temple, crushing the skull.

The frantic father seized his daughter and started running towards the house. The little one died in his arms before reaching the door.

The father and mother are both prostrated over the tragic ocurrence. Elizabeth was their oldest child. Another child, a baby, survives.

TREASURER'S REPORT OF POOR FUND ENCOURAGING

The treasurers report of the general fund of the Charleroi Association for the relief of the poor is rather incouraging, showing a balance in his hands of $66.57, while $115.50 was shown by the report of the treasurer of the soliciting committe, has not been turned over to the general treasurer, making a total of $182.07. The work of the association during the summer has not required so much money as it would during the cold months for the needs of the poor, for whom the fund is provided, are fewer.

The plan used in despensing the money to the needy is a good one, so that all the poor of Charleroi the really needy are provided with necessaries. William Gelder the general treasurer who is also humane officer looks after the expenditures and keeps a record of all who have been provided with food or clothing and is constantly on the lookout for others who may be assisted.

The Relief Association makes a special request to the people that they do not destroy their cast off clothing or shoes, but get in communication with Mr. Gelder or some member of the committee and inform them of their residence and have someone call to get the articles. It is likely that a committee of ladies will be appointed to canvass the town and find all who have something to give for the poor, then have a team and wagon make a collection.

The report of the general treasurer follows:

Withstood Attacks With Meat Knife

Zollarsville, Sept. 17.—Residents of this section are greatly excited over the appearance of two unknown highwaymen in the vicinity, who, last night, within a period of half an hour, made two unsuccessful attempts at holding up George Staub, a baker, who was returning home with the proceeds of making a wholesale delivery of his bakery products to the new coal shafts at Mapleana. The holdup men were thwarted on both occasions by Staub attacking them with a meat knife.

ROLLED DOWN 40-FOOT BANK, IS ARRESTED

Stepping from a moving car on the Rostsburg line a short distance north of the Monessen-Charleroi bridge, a man by the name of Sutherland of Monessen was given an impetus which started him on a roll down a forty feet bank and finally landed him in the road below, unconscious last night at about 11:50 o'clock. Sutherland was picked up and taken to the city hall, Monongahela, where he spent the night. He was not much injured.

Parson Brown of Finleyville Resigns

Monongahela, Pa., Sept. 17.—Rev. S. T. Brown, pastor of the Finleyville Presbyterian church, and known as the "Fighting Parson," owing to the battle he waged against the saloons of that town, ending in all the licenses being revoked last spring, announces that he will preach his farewell sermon September 27, and accept a call from the Clairton Presbyterian church.

BOYS SEEKING FORTUNES ARE NOW STRANDED

After undergoing the dangers of a several hundred mile freight ride from their home in Evansville, Ind. to this place and then stranded and without a place to eat or sleep is the fate of Robert McCurry, aged 17 and Roy Bonemburger, age 19. Both in appearance are boys of 13 or 14.

They left their homes with the idea of seeking fortunes in this section and with but a dollar capital between them. The young fellows expected to find jobs in the glass factory of this place, but find that the pay for the work which they are able to do, will not so much as pay their board. McCurry formerly lived in this place with his parents.

The lads have been bunking in an outhouse near the ball ground and getting their eatables any way possible. They are in California today looking for a job.

ALTOONA MAN MANUFACTURES FUEL

John Elmore, of Altoona, the inventor of the fuel compound is busily engaged at the manufacture of the compound which he is now placing on the market. He has established agencies in different parts of the state and anticipates a large sale when winter comes. He has not yet secured his patent but has obtained a trade mark which will afford ample protection against counterfeits.

Mr. Elmore's compound, concerning which a great deal has been written and misrepresented is used with coal, the claim set up for it being that it reduces the amount of fuel consumedf increases the density of the heat and renders the whole almost smokeless. He has his manufacturing plant at the corner of Ninth avenue and Sixth streets, Altoona and is daily manufacturing large quantities of the compound.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church are holding a "block" carnival on Washington avenue between Fifth and Sixth street, which is proving a success.

Rezy Will Be Brought Back From Cincinnati

Uniontown, Sept. 18.—Gov. A. L. Harris, has granted the requisition papers for the return of William Rezy to Fayette county. News of this action was received yesterday by District Attorney Henderson from Sheriff P. A. Johns, who appeared before the governor to present the case.

However this does not end the fight, as Rezy will have a hearing today in Cincinnati upon his application for a writ of habeas corpus. Sheriff Johns and County Detective McBeth are both in Cincinnati and have all the papers now ready to oppose the application.

In a telephone message to Uniontown yesterday Sheriff Johns stated that the granting of the requisition papers and the extradition of Rezy had been fought at every point, Harrisburg, Columbus and Cincinnati. He stated that Rezy had attorneys to appear in his behalf before Gov. Harris, but that after hearing the case and scanning the papers signed by Gov. E. S. Stuart he granted the request of the local authorities.

The sheriff has employed attorneys in Cincinnati to handle the matter for Fayette county and he spoke hopefully of being able to start for Uniontown today.

During the past six or seven years, she alleges, her husband has been addicted to the use of intoxicating liquor, that he frequently came home at night intoxicated, broke up the furniture and beat her. She also stated that her husband repeatedly threatened her life.

The physician of the Pasteur Institute, Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, has pronounced the dog which ran amuck on the hill at Monongahela Monday night as suffering from rabies of the most pronounced type. The head of the dog was taken to the Institute, and after making the examination, he declared the dog had been mad. The children who had been bitten, William McGregor, William Shearer, Freda Powell and Jennie Uthe, will be given the Pasteur treatment for the next three weeks, at the end of which time the physician declares all danger from hyrdophobia will have passed. Mrs. Shearer will remain in the city with her son, stopping with friends for the time, as will also Jennie Uthe.

How He Became a Successful Saver

A young man started a Bank Account with $25.00 and deposited $25.00 to his credit each month. As his income increased, he increased the amount of his deposits to $50.00, then to $75.00, then to $100.00 per month. Four years have now passed, and he has $4,000 to his credit.

This shows what can be accomplished by systematic saving. Why not try this plan? Open an account with the First National Bank of Charleroi now.

The fellow who thinks he is a good man, and at the same time isn't trying to do any good excepting for himself, isn't fooling very many people. There are men in every community who are rich, austere, self righteous, and who believe themselves to be superior citizens, who do not concern themselves in the least about the misery, and distress of deserving neighbors.

John Wanamaker borrowed $6,000,000 and gave out an interview that prosperity is in sight, all in one week. Any one who can borrow that amount of money ought to be able to see prosperity a long ways off.

Must Be Taught.

The average foreigner in America has a hard time, seemingly, to learn the laws of this free land, and for that reason is constantly getting into trouble of some sort. As a rule the ignorant and poor immigrate to this country with the idea that riches may be had for the asking, and that he will be given a free rein so long as he does not commit murder or robbery. But he runs amuck. The first thing in many cases which he does is to forget to place his children in school. Result, arrest and fine. Next he will take a notion to go hunting, the chances are in any time but the proper period of the year and is again brought up by the officials of the law. And so on until he learns the rudiments of American government.

In numerous cases when he is fined, the alien is at an entire loss to know the trouble. He must be taught the laws, however and there seems to be no better way than this. In the first place however it would be a good idea to impress upon him the necessity of allowing his children the full advantages of the schools of our mangnificent country.

Foul. Ugh.

According to Alexander Potter, consulting engineer of New York City, the water of the Youghiogheny river is the foulest in the whole country and the Monongahela is making strong bids for the honor, being nearly as bad as the former, on account of acids from the numerous coal mines along its banks. That sounds nice to say the least. The residents of the Monongahela Valley are the most willing people in the world to accept any honor or enjoy any especial distinction that comes their way, but when it comes to living along a waterway which has a reputation above all others for foulness, the people draw the line. They cannot see any pleasure in that distinction.

It is an acknowledged fact that these waters are hard on boilers of boats, and destroy them in a remarkably short time. Mr. Potter seems to think however that there is some remedy.

For New Lumber

Rangers on the Coeur d'Alene forest reserves in northern Idaho, beginning 17 miles east of Spokane, Washington, have received orders from the department at Washington to gather together seeds of tamarack and white and yellow pine, which will be sown broadcast on the snow the coming winter in places where no tamarack or pine trees are growing. Several hundred thousand acres of forests are included in the reserves in Idaho and it is believed by men skilled in woodcraft that this method of reforesting will result in a new crop of timber in from 30 to 40 years, thus adding millions of dollars to the assets of the state, besides perpetuating the lumber industry.

One Preacher's Experiment.

A Methodist preacher of Chicago spent his vacation Sundays dressed as a tramp, in visiting the services of nine churches attended by wealthy congregations. He reports that in eight of the nine churches he was made welcome, despite his disreputable clothes. His verdict is that "there is nothing in this socialist charge that the churches cater only to the rich." He says: "I found, as I had hoped, that it was just the other way."

Aside from the question of the competency of this preacher as a judge, for he was undoubtedly predisposed to the verdict which he rendered, the question may properly be asked whether this business of impersonating the tramps has not been carried far enough. Try as he may, a preacher cannot look like a tramp, act like a tramp, or feel like a tramp. He may wear a vagrant's clothes, but he still has the features and bearing of his profession. He does not receive the treatment which is accorded to the simon-pure hobo.

So his findings are valueless, even granting that in any case they might be worth going after. The preacher-investigator's verdict will change nobody's opinion. Everybody will determine the question of the church's hospitality according to his own experience. And, in truth, there are doubtless churches attended chiefly by wealthy and fashionable folk, where a poor man would not feel at home; and there are other churches rejoicing in the appellation of "the common people," in which any man, no matter how lowly his lot, would be made heartily welcome.—New Castle Herald.

Millions in Railway Improvements.

This is not the day of greedy expansion into new territory by the greater railroad systems of the United States—it is not the era of warfare among railroad presidents for right of way into undeveloped country and neither is it the period of acquiring branch lines which connect with the main systems: It is the period of physical development of railroad systems, in the fullest sense of the term.

What does the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars by the various railroads mean? Ask the railroad kings who are authorizing the expenditures, or, better still, go to the points where the money is being spent and the answer is obvious—for physical development.

The Pennsylvania Railroad occupies the foremost position from the standpoint of magnitude if improvements now under way. In the past six years it has planned for the expenditure of $125,000,000 for improvements adjacent to New York City besides other costly work upon more remote sections of the road.

It may be justly stated that the cardinal principle of the day of railroading is to increase the efficiency of transportation. To do this vast sums of money must be spent on terminals, cutoffs, reducing grades, eliminating grade crossings, increasing the number of tracks and the purchase of rolling stock. Millions and hundreds of millions must be expended by the great railroads for carrying on this work.

The railroad captains of industry, in the face of constant adverse legislation, are today confronted with this very serious problem:

Where to Advertise.

If you wanted to sell a man a coat, and you could get the man's intimate friend to go and talk to him about your coat, your sale would be almost assured.

"The local newspaper is the intimate friend of the people you are trying to reach in each locality. You may advertise in the big monthlies spread all over the country; you may have your pictures beautifully done in colors and half-tone.

"You may advertise in the few great metropolitan newspapers and break ground in a big way. But you cannot get all the results unless you can bring to your aid the daily association of the local editor with his local reader."

If you have good goods to sell let the local newspapers tell it's friends about it through its columns. No better recommendation can be secured than the co-operation of the home newspaper which knows everybody and which everybody knows.

Some weeks ago it is alleged Pahn wrote an article for a Greek newspaper in his native country concerning the business standing of Emanuel Stimatis, who conducts a small grocery in East Canonsburg. When the two met there was a wordy war followed by an attempt of the latter to shoot. Stimatis then jumped on Pahn and beat him up.

Labor Notes.

Uncle Sam is the country's greatest employer of labor, with 1,623,518 names on his payroll. Of these 286,902 are in the executive civil service; 75,577 in the postal service; 62,663 are postmasters; 60,000 are in the army; 3,000 in the navy; 30,000 employed on the Panama canal; 10,000 in the reclamation service; 25,000 are on the miscellaneous list, and 1,017,000 on the pension list.

The condition of the working class families in some of the manufacturing towns of Holland is deplorable. Wages are extremely low, and the standard of life cannot be maintained unless mother and children take their places in the factory, side by side with the head of the household. In most cases, as soon as the Dutch law allows the child to leave school, which is at the age of 12 years, he must enter the factory or workshop.

The most recent child labor legislation in Canada is the act passed at the last session of the British Columbia legislature. Under this law no boy under 14 or girl under 15 may be employed in a factory except in the canning of fruit or fish. The exception in the fish and fruit industries applies only during the "runs" of the various classes of fish or during the fruit seasons. On the other hand there is no limitation in hours in these industries. Conditions do not seem to be favorable to the movement for reducing the hours of work.

CAPE COD.

A Nomadic Piece of Land That Is Constantly Changing.

Cape Cod itself is sand and, like everything of a desert nature, is nomadic. Like the Arab, it is always silently stealing away, so that the appearance of the peninsula constantly changes. The prevailing winds in the winter being from the north, the sand is blown south; in summer it is blown t'other way. But, the winter winds being stronger, the land is gradually working south. Monomoy, at the lower end, used to be an island, its extremity being called Cape Malabar, a name not used now—why I cannot say. This island of Monomoy is rapidly growing toward Nantucket, it having advanced some five miles in the last fifty years. One of the Rubes told me that his father used to fish where the light is now. Of course you can always strain Rube talk and pick out about 50 per cent sediment, but the old charts show that the point is working south fast.—From "Knocking About Cape Cod," by T. F. Daly, in Outing Magazine.

Sarsaparilla.

The druggist was serving a couple of men with sarsaparilla.

"Did you ever stop to think where this delicious stuff comes from?" he asked.

"Sassafras, isn't it?" they hazarded.

"Sassafras nothing," said the druggist. "Sarsaparilla is made of zarza roots, and zarza roots come from the Amazonas swamps of Brazil.

"Fearful swamps they are—smelly black mud; mosquitoes in millions, snakes and crabs, heat, poison, orchids, fever. And here the natives camp for weeks at a time gathering zarza roots for the sarsaparilla trade. The vine runs along the ground, the roots are located, and half of them are taken, the remaining half being carefully covered with soil again, so that they will sprout for next year.

"It is because sarsaparilla, like quinine, grows in fever soil that it is good for fever."

Beautiful Hair

should be every woman's pride and joy. But how many women possess it? To be really beautiful the hair must be soft, silky, glossy and abundant. This long sought for and highly desirable condition of the hair can be brought about easily and quickly by a little careful attention and the use of

WOODBURY'S COMBINATION HAIR TONIC

This tonic is most of all a hair beautifier. It restores the original lustre and sheen to the hair, stimulates its growth and renews the original softness and splendor. It transforms thin, faded, lifeless, scanty hair to a rich, heavy, healthy, luxuriant growth.

For over a third of a century Woodbury's Combination Hair Tonic has been used at the Woodbury Institute. This is the identical tonic used there today. A trial will convince you that it is the ideal preparation not only for preserving the hair and keeping it healthy, but also for beautifying it.

Art Comes High.

"A New York lady," said a Parisian, "once ventured to remonstrate with Paquin because he had charged her $700 for a ball dress. 'The material,' she said, 'could be bought for $100, and surely the work would be well paid with $50 more.'

"'Madame,' said Paquin, with his grandest air, 'go to your American painter, Sargent, in his little Tite street studio and say to him: "Here is a yard of canvas, value 50 cents, and here are colors, value $1. Paint me a picture with these colors on this canvas, and I will pay you $1.75." What will the painter say? He will say, "Madame, those are no terms for an artist." I say more. I say, if you think my terms too high, pay me nothing and keep the robe. Art does not descend to the litticuess of haggling.'"

Obedient English Husbands.

Despite all the admonitions to perfect obedience which have for decades been carefully instilled into the feminine mind, it is an undoubted fact that this is an age not of obedient wives, but of obedient husbands. Some obey through love, some through fear and others through a desire for peace, but all are alike, insomuch that they are docile to a degree undreamed of in the middle ages or even in the Victorian era of Dundreary whiskers and baggy trousers.—London Gentlewoman.

Making More Than a Living

Nearly every man who works steadily makes more than a living. During these slow times the men who have saved something appreciate what it is to have something laid away for a rainy day. A few cents a day soon counts up, and when savings are placed in a bank at a tidy interest the sum soon grows to proportions that make it a safeguard against want when work is not plentiful. Figure up how much more than a living you are making now, and place the difference in this bank. Four per cent. interest paid in savings department.

THE CHARLEROI MAIL

Entered second class mail at Charleroi, June 16, 1900, according to Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

VOL. 9. No. 32 — CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1908 — One Cent

WEST PENN COMPANY CUTS IN ON LOOP TODAY

The cut in on the new loop line of the West Penn Electric company is to be made sometime this afternoon according to word received at the local office. Several tests have been made of the line which was completed Wednesday but it has not been put into actual use as yet. By the installation of the line which completes the loop the service of the West Penn company will be greatly increased in efficiency, all customers having greater assurance than ever that power will be available at all times. Heretofore, when a break in the line occurred, all towns outside the break were without power until repairs were made. Under the arrangement now in effect, should a break occur at any point on the feeding lines, that portion will be cut out and the towns supplied from the opposite direction.

The system now makes a complete loop, beginning at the power house at New Haven. From there it goes to Uniontown, to Brownsville, to Charleroi, to Monongahela, to Versailles, to Greensburg, to Scottdale, and from there back to the power house at New Haven. Each end of this loop line is supplied from practically different power stations, the line leaving the building from opposite sides, by which means the current can be transmitted either way on the loop.

This loop line will do away with the shortage of power in the various towns on the circuit, which has formerly been caused by breaks in the line, and will be an assurance to all users of the fluid that service will be constant at all times. The electric company is already signing up new contracts for power on the strength of this guarantee of power at all times, Mr. Glass having arranged for about 1,000 additional horse power in the last few days.

The news of the completion of this line will be good news to our citizens assuring us as it does a better lighting service than ever before.

Ball Player Takes Bride.

Woody Thornton, a Monongahela valley boy, who for two years played shortstop for Eckle's Independent team here, and who has been playing middle field for Mobile in the Southern league, left that club yesterday to marry Miss Gertie Faubaches, a Mobile heiress. They will make their home in Pittsburg. Mr. Thornton's former home was in Brownsville, and he is very popular among his large number of acquaintances in this section.

Coal And Coke Shipments.

Shipments of coal and coke originating along the Pennsylvania railroad lines east of Pittsburg and Erie for the week ending September 12, aggregated 809,602 tons divided as follows: Anthracite coal, 76,908 tons; bituminous coal, 594,274 tons; coke, 138,420 tons. This is a decrease of about 50,000 tons, as compared with the previous week.

SKULL CRUSHED BY HORSE'S HOOF

Child Of Clarksville Suffers A Terrible Death.

THROWN FROM BUGGY

In the presence of her father who was unable to rescue her, Elizabeth, the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher C. Teagarden, was trampled to death by a horse at Clarksville, Greene county, last evening. The circumstances in connection with the death of the child were tragic in the extreme

Mr. and Mrs. Teagarden had attended the fair at Jefferson yesterday. They arrived home about 4 o'clock. little Elizabeth had remained home during the day with her grandmother, Mrs. James Greenlee. Of course the child was overjoyed to see her father and mother when they returned and ran shouting out to the road to meet them. The mother got out of the buggy and the child begging for a ride was taken into the rig by the father.

Mr. Teagarden drove at once to the residence of R. G. Murray, about a block away and stopped to water the horse. The father got out to unrein the animal, leaving the child in the buggy. The bridle caught on the pump and when the horse threw back its head he was frightened and started to run rapidly backward. Little Elizabeth was thrown from the buggy and as she atlighted on the ground the horse set one of its ponderous hind feet on the child's right temple, crushing the skull.

The frantic father seized his daughter and started running towards the house. The little one died in his arms before reaching the door.

The father and mother are both prostrated over the tragic ocurrence. Elizabeth was their oldest child. Another child, a bady, survives.

TREASURER'S REPORT OF POOR FUND ENCOURAGING

The treasurers report of the general fund of the Charleroi Association for the relief of the poor is rather incouraging, showing a balance in his hands of $66.57, while $115.50 was shown by the report of the treasurer of the soliciting committe, has not been turned over to the general treasurer, making a total of $182.07. The work of the association during the summer has not required so much money as it would during the cold months for the needs of the poor, for whom the fund is provided, are fewer

The plan used in despensing the money to the needy is a good one, so that all the poor of Charleroi the really needy are provided with necessaries. William Gelder the general treasurer who is also humane officer looks after the expenditures and keeps a record of all who have been provided with food or clothing and is constantly on the lookout for others who may be assisted..

The Relief Association makes a special request to the people that they do not destroy their cast off clothing or shoes, but get in communication with Mr. Gelder or some member of the committee and inform them of their residence and have someone call to get the articles. It is likely that a committee of ladies will be appointed to canvass the town and find all who have something to give for the poor, then have a team and wagon make a collection.

The report of the general treasurer follows:

CHANGE OF PROGRAM WARMLY WELCOMED

The change of program at the Star theatre last evening was warmly welcomed as was evidenced by the large crowds at each show. Heaston and McKean gave an entirely new act that was hailed with delight. The act of Mitchell and Browning took well as did the contortionist and trapeze performer Waldo.

Withstood Attacks With Meat Knife

Zollarsville, Sept. 17.—Residents of this section are greatly excited over the appearance of two unknown highwaymen in the vicinity, who, last night, within a period of half an hour, made two unsuccessful attempts at holding up George Staub, a baker, who was returning home with the proceeds of making a wholesale delivery of his bakery products to the new coal shafts at Marianna. The holdup men were thwarted on both occasions by Staub attacking them with a meat knife.

ROLLED DOWN 40-FOOT BANK, IS ARRESTED

Stenger [illegible] is moving [illegible] on the Brownsburg line a short distance north of the Monessen-Charleroi bridge, a man by the name of Sutherland of Monessen was given an impetus which started him on a roll down a forty feet bank and finally landed him in the road below, unconscious last night at about 11:30 o'clock. Sutherland was picked up and taken to the city hall, Monongahela, where he spent the night. He was not much injured.

Parson Brown of Finleyville Resigns

Monongahela, Pa., Sept. 17.—Rev. S. T. Brown, pastor of the Finleyville Presbyterian church, and known as the "Fighting Parson," owing to the battle he waged against the saloons of that town, ending in all the licenses being revoked last spring, announces that he will preach his farewell sermon September 27, and accept a call from the Clairton Presbyterian church.

BOYS SEEKING FORTUNES ARE NOW STRANDED

After undergoing the dangers of a several hundred mile freight ride from their home in Evansville, Ind. to this place and then stranded and without a place to eat or sleep is the fate of Robert McCurry, aged 17 and Roy Bonemburger, age 19. Both in appearance are boys of 13 or 14.

They left their homes with the idea of seeking fortunes in this section and with but a dollar capital between them. The young fellows expected to find jobs in the glass factory of this place, but find that the pay for the work which they are able to do, will not so much as pay their board. McCurry formerly lived in this place with his parents.

The kids have been bunking in an outhouse near the ball ground and getting their eatables any way possible. They are in California today looking for a job.

ALTOONA MAN MANUFACTURES FUEL

John Elmore, of Altoona, the inventor of the fuel compound is busily engaged at the manufacture of the compound which he is now placing on the market. He has established agencies in different parts of the state and anticipates a large sale when winter comes. He has not yet secured his patent but has obtained a trade mark which will afford ample protection against counterfeits.

Mr. Elmore's compound, concerning which a great deal has been written and misrepresented is used with coal, the claim set up for it being that it reduces the amount of fuel consumedf increases the density of the heat and renders the whole almost smokeless. He has his manufacturing plant at the corner of Ninth avenue and Sixth streets, Altoona and is daily manufacturing large quantities of the compound.

Rezy Will Be Brought Back From Cincinnati

Uniontown, Sept. 18.—Gov. A. L. Harris, has granted the requisition papers for the return of William Rezy to Fayette county. News of this action was received yesterday by District Attorney Henderson from Sheriff P. A. Johns, who appeared before the governor to present the case.

However this does not end the fight, as Rezy will have a hearing today in Cincinnati upon his application for a writ of habeas corpus. Sheriff Johns and County Detective McBeth are both in Cincinnati and have all the papers now ready to oppose the application.

In a telephone message to Uniontown yesterday Sheriff Johns stated that the granting of the requisition papers and the extradition of Rezy had been fought at every point, Harrisburg, Columbus and Cincinnati. He stated that Rezy had attorneys to appear in his behalf before Gov. Harris, but that after hearing the case and scanning the papers signed by Gov. E. S. Stuart he granted the request of the local authorities.

The sheriff has employed attorneys in Cincinnati to handle the matter for Fayette county and he spoke hopefully of being able to start for Uniontown today.

DONORA WOMAN SEEKS A DIVORCE

Ethel Blyston, of Donora, has filed a libel in divorce against her husband, Irwin Blyston. A subpoena has been awarded returnable to the November term. The libellant asks for a divorce on the grounds of cruel and barbarous treatment. She states in her petition they have been married 13 years. During the past six or seven years, she alleges, her husband has been addicted to the use of intoxicating liquor, that he frequently came home at night intoxicated, broke up the furniture and beat her. She also stated that her husband repeatedly threatened her life.

The Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburg has secured a number of experts to deliver addresses at the meetings to be held in connection with the Milk and Cream Contest, which will be conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, Keenan Building, Pittsburg, on October 22nd. There will be a morning session to commerce at 9:30 o'clock, and Mr. C. B. Lane, Assistant Chief of the Dairy Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture, will preside. The awarding of medals for the samples of milk and cream receiving the highest scores will conlude the afternoon session.

A number of entries have already been assured from dairymen in Western Pennsylvania and Northeastern Ohio, assuring that the contest will be an interesting one. In addition to the addresses, there will be an interesting exhibit of dairy utensils, milk bottles separators, etc., in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. There will also be a photographic exhibition of dairy farms, showing good and bad conditions.

Physician Says It Was a Bad Case Of Rabies

Monongahela Children Bitten By Dog-Undergoing Treatment.

The physician of the Pasteur Institute, Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, has pronounced the dog which ran amuck on the hill at Monongahela Monday night as suffering from rabies of the most pronounced type. The head of the dog was taken to the Institute, and after making the examination, he declared the dog had been mad. The children who had been bitten, William McGregor, William Shearer, Freda Powell and Jennie Uthe, will be given the Pasteur treatment for the next three weeks, at the end of which time the physician declares all danger from hyrdophobia will have passed. For the first week the patients will be treated twice daily, and after that once a day for two weeks. Mr. McGregor will take his son to the city every day for treatment, Miss Powell also making the trip daily. Mrs. Shearer will remain in the city with her son, stopping with friends for the time, as will also Jennie Uthe.

20,000,000 BUSHELS AWAITING SHIPMENTS

How He Became a Successful Saver

A young man started a Bank Account with $25.00 and deposited $25.00 to his credit each month. As his income increased, he increased the amount of his deposits to $50.00, then to $75.00, then to $100.00 per month. Four years have now passed, and he has $4,000 to his credit.

This shows what can be accomplished by systematic saving. Why not try this plan? Open an account with the First National Bank of Charleroi now.

To be consistent, Virginia in changing from the gallows to the electric chair should fashion lynching nooses from handy trolley wires.

The fellow who thinks he is a good man, and at the same time isn't trying to do any good excepting for himself, isn't fooling very many people. There are men in every community who are rich, austere, self righteous, and who believe themselves to be superior citizens, who do not concern themselves in the least about the misery, and distress of deserving neighbors.

John Wanamaker borrowed $6,000,000 and gave out an interview that prosperity is in sight, all in one week. Any one who can borrow that amount of money ought to be able to see prosperity a long ways off.

A large chestnut crop is predicted this year. It is a good year for chestnuts. Bryan is on the Democratic ticket.

Girls are making records this year in all parts of the country with their daring methods of routing burglars and various ways of demonstrating their bravery. But never mind fellows, just remember this is leap year, and they are entitled to spread themselves.

Must Be Taught.

The average foreigner in America has a hard time, seemingly, to learn the laws of this free land, and for that reason is constantly getting into trouble of some sort. As a rule the ignorant and poor immigrate to this country with the idea that riches may be had for the asking, and that he will be given a free rein so long as he does not commit murder or robbery. But he runs amuck. The first thing in many cases which he does is to forget to place his children in school. Result, arrest and fine. Next he will take a notion to go hunting, the chances are in any time but the proper period of the year and is again brought up by the officials of the law. And so on until he learns the rudiments of American government.

In numerous cases when he is fined the alien is at an entire loss to know the trouble. He must be taught the laws, however and there seems to be no better way than this. In the first place however it would be a good idea to impress upon him the necessity of allowing his children the full advantages of the schools of our mangnificent country.

Foul. Ugh.

According to Alexander Potter, consulting engineer of New York City, the water of the Youghiogheny river is the foulest in the whole country and the Monongahela is making strong bids for the honor, being nearly as bad as the former, on account of acids from the numerous coal mines along its banks. That sounds nice to say the least. The residents of the Monongahela Valley are the most willing people in the world to accept any honor or enjoy any especial distinction that comes their way, but when it comes to living along a waterway which has a reputation above all others for foulness, the people draw the line. They cannot see any pleasure in that distinction.

It is an acknowledged fact that these waters are hard on boilers of boats, and destroy them in a remarkably short time. Mr. Potter seems to think however that there is some remedy.

For New Lumber

Rangers on the Coeur d'Alene forest reserves in northern Idaho, beginning 17 miles east of Spokane, Washington, have received orders from the department at Washington to gather together seeds of tamarack and white and yellow pine, which will be sown broadcast on the snow the coming winter in places where no tamarack or pine trees are growing. Several hundred thousand acres of forests are included in the reserves in Idaho and it is believed by men skilled in woodcraft that this method of reforesting will result in a new crop of timber in from 30 to 40 years, thus adding millions of dollars to the assets of the state, besides perpetuating the lumber industry.

One Preacher's Experiment.

A Methodist preacher of Chicago spent his vacation Sundays dressed as a tramp, in visiting the services of nine churches attended by wealthy congregations. He reports that in eight of the nine churches he was made welcome, despite his disreputable clothes. His verdict is that "there is nothing in this socialist charge that the churches cater only to the rich." He says: "I found, as I had hoped, that it was just the other way."

Aside from the question of the competency of this preacher as a judge, for he was undoubtedly predisposed to the verdict which he rendered, the question may properly be asked whether this business of impersonating the tramps has not been carried far enough. Try as he may, a preacher cannot look like a tramp, act like a tramp, or feel like a tramp. He may wear a vagrant's clothes, but he still has the features and bearing of his profession. He does not receive the treatment which is accorded to the simon-pure hobo.

So his findings are valueless, even granting that in any case they might be worth going after. The preacher-investigator's verdict will change nobody's opinion. Everybody will determine the question of the church's hospitality according to his own experience. And, in truth, there are doubtless churches attended chiefly by wealthy and fashionable folk, where a poor man would not feel at home; and there are other churches rejoicing in the appellation of "the common people," in which any man, no matter how lowly his lot, would be made heartily welcome.—New Castle Herald.

Meeting of Association.

The meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Association Dailies which will be held at Hotel Lincoln, Pittsburg, on Monday, promises to be one of the most interesting meetings in the history of the association. Several matters of vital interest to the publisher of a daily newspaper will come up for discussion.

Millions in Railway Improvements.

This is not the day of greedy expansion into new territory by the greater railroad systems of the United States—it is not the era of warfare among railroad presidents for right of way into undeveloped country and neither is it the period of acquiring branch lines which connect with the main systems: It is the period of physical development of railroad systems, in the fullest sense of the term.

What does the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars by the various railroads mean? Ask the railroad kings who are authorizing the expenditures, or, better still, go to the points where the money is being spent and the answer is obvious—for physical development.

The Pennsylvania Railroad occupies the foremost position from the standpoint of magnitude if improvements now under way. In the past six years it has planned for the expenditure of $125,000,000 for improvements adjacent to New York City besides other costly work upon more remote sections of the road.

It may be justly stated that the cardinal principle of the day of railroading is to inrease the efficiency of transportation. To do this vast sums of money must be spent on terminals, cutoffs, reducing grades, eliminating grade crossings, increasing the number of tracks and the purchase of rolling stock. Millions and hundreds of millions must be expended by the great railroads for carrying on this work.

The railroad captains of industry, in the face of constant adverse legislation, are today confronted with this very serious problem:

Where to Advertise.

If you wanted to sell a man a coat, and you could get the man's intimate friend to go and talk to him about your coat, your sale would be almost assured.

"The local newspaper is the intimate friend of the people you are trying to reach in each locality. You may advertise in the big monthlies spread all over the country; you may have your pictures beautifully done in colors and half-tone.

"You may advertise in the few great metropolitan newspapers and break ground in a big way. But you cannot get all the results unless you can bring to your aid the daily association of the local editor with his local reader."

If you have good goods to sell let the local newspapers tell it's friends about it through its columns. No better recommendation can be secured than the co-operation of the home newspaper which knows everybody and which everybody knows.

Washington, Pa., Sept. 18.—Because his companion thought Herry Brenan was a groundhog, Brenan is carrying a load of No. 3 shot in his back. The physicians stated that 98 shots penetrated the skin. Brenan was lying on the ground when his fellow Nimrod, W. V. Foreman, stealthily approached and fired.

Donora, Sept. 17.—I. T. Blyston, chief of the Donora fire compay, was arrested by his wife yesterday afternoon for assaulting her and a hearing was given before 'Squire Koehler last night. The defendant pleaded guilty and sentence supsended until this morning at 9 o'clock. He was fined $10 and costs.

Canonsburg, Sept. 18.—As the result of attempting to take the life of [illegible], a Greek employed at the Hazel mine, Emanuel Pahn, also a Greek is now wearing a badly disfigured face. Some weeks ago it is alleged Pahn wrote an article for a Greek newspaper in his native country concerning the business standing of Emanuel Stimatis, who conducts a small grocery in East Canonsburg. When the two met there was a wordy war followed by an attempt of the latter to shoot. Stimatis then jumped on Pahn and beat him up.

Labor Notes.

Uncle Sam is the country's greatest employer of labor, with 1,623,518 names on his payroll. Of these 286,902 are in the executive civil service; 75,577 in the postal service; 62,663 are postmasters; 60,000 are in the army; 3,000 in the navy; 30,000 employed on the Panama canal; 10,000 in the reclamation service; 25,000 are on the miscellaneous list, and 1,017,000 on the pension list.

The condition of the working class families in some of the manufacturing towns of Holland is deplorable. Wages are extremely low, and the standard of life cannot be maintained unless mother and children take their places in the factory, side by side with the head of the household. In most cases, as soon as the Dutch law allows the child to leave school, which is at the age of 12 years, he must enter the factory or workshop.

The most recent child labor legislation in Canada is the act passed at the last session of the British Columbia legislature. Under this law no boy under 14 or girl under 15 may be employed in a factory except in the canning of fruit or fish. The exception in the fish and fruit industries applies only during the "runs" of the various classes of fish or during the fruit seasons. On the other hand there is no limitation in hours in these industries. Conditions do not seem to be favorable to the movement for reducing the hours of work.

Art Comes High.

"A New York lady," said a Parisian, "once ventured to remonstrate with Paquin because he had charged her $100 for a ball dress.

CAPE COD.

A Nomadic Piece of Land That Is Constantly Changing.

Cape Cod itself is sand and like everything of a desert nature, is nomadic. Like the Arab, it is always silently stealing away, so that the appearance of the peninsula constantly changes. The prevailing winds in the winter being from the north, the sand is blown south; in summer it is blown t'other way. But, the winter winds being stronger, the land is gradually working south. Monomoy, at the lower end, used to be an island, its extremity being called Cape Malabar, a name not used now—why I cannot say. This island of Monomoy is rapidly growing toward Nantucket, it having advanced some five miles in the last fifty years. One of the Rubes told me that his father used to fish where the light is now. Of course you can always strain Rube talk and pick out about 50 per cent sediment, but the old charts show that the point is working south fast.—From "Knocking About Cape Cod," by T. F. Daly, in Outing Magazine.

Sarsaparilla.

The druggist was serving a couple of men with sarsaparilla.

"I wonder where this delicious stuff comes from?" he asked.

"Sassafras, isn't it?" they hazarded.

"Sassafras nothing," said the druggist. "Sarsaparilla is made of zarza roots, and zarza roots come from the Amazonas swamps of Brazil.

"Fearful swamps they are—smelly black mud, mosquitoes by millions, snakes and crabs, heat, poison, orchids, fever. And here the natives camp for weeks at a time gathering zarza roots for the sarsaparilla trade. The vine runs along the ground, the roots are located, and half of them are taken, the remaining half being carefully covered with soil again, so that they will sprout for next year.

"It is because sarsaparilla, like quinine, grows in fever soil that it is good for fever."

Obedient English Husbands.

Despite all the admonitions to perfect obedience which have for decades been carefully instilled into the feminine mind, it is an undoubted fact that this is an age not of obedient wives, but of obedient husbands. Some obey through love, some through fear and others through a desire for peace, but all are alike, insomuch that they are docile to a degree undreamed of in the middle ages or even in the Victorian era of Dundreary whiskers and baggy trousers.—London Gentlewoman.

Few Words.

He had gone to ask her father for her hand in marriage.

"Well, sir, what is it?" snapped out the old man. "Remember, I am a man of few words."

"I don't care if you are a man of only one word, if it's the right one," replied the suitor.

He got the girl.

Right In a Sense.

"That waiter's an idiot!"

"What's the matter now?"

"I asked him to bring me a water cracker."

"Well?"

Making More Than a Living

Nearly every man who works steadily makes more than a living. During these slow times the men who have saved something appreciate what it is to have something laid away for a rainy day. A few cents a day soon counts up, and when savings are placed in a bank at a tidy interest the sum soon grows to proportions that make it a safeguard against want when work is not plentiful. Figure up how much more than a living you are making now, and place the difference in this bank. Four per cent. intereet paid in savings department.
